S.R.O. 543.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 7 of the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885 (XIII of 1885), the Central Government hereby makes the following further amendments in the Indian Telegraph Rules, 1951, namely:—

For rule 423 of the said Rules, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"423. Fixed Time Calls—Advance Bookings; in the trunk telephone service, subject to conditions prescribed by the Director-General, a subscriber booking private trunk calls may be allowed to book in advance a "Fixed Time" trunk call, either ordinary or urgent, to be put through at or near an agreed time on any day over a direct trunk line. For a "Fixed Time" trunk call an extra charge of 25 per cent. of the full, ordinary or urgent rate of charge, as the case may be, for a single period shall be payable, subject to a minimum of six annas for ordinary calls and twelve annas for urgent calls and to a maximum of two rupees for ordinary calls and four rupees for urgent calls. If prior intimation is received that a subscriber binds himself to make a "Fixed Time" call between the same two numbers for a period of at least five consecutive days in the week, he may be allowed to do so. Such calls are termed "subscription Fixed Time" calls. The extra charge for each such call shall be reduced to one half of the extra charge for the corresponding "Fixed Time" call. For the purpose of reckoning consecutive days, Sundays and the Telegraph holidays (Rule 78), on which calls are not made, shall be ignored, and when there are two Telegraph holidays in a particular week, the aforesaid minimum period of five consecutive days in a week shall be reduced to a period of four consecutive days.

A "Subscription Fixed Time" call on a bank or Market holiday may be put through on an alternative calling telephone number intimated by the calling subscriber. The telephone exchange should verify that—

- (i) the office in which the calling telephone is situated is actually closed on the particular day; and
- (ii) the alternative calling number on which the call is required to be put through, actually belongs to the party who has booked the subscription fixed time call.

When this option of an alternative calling number is exercised on any day by the subscriber for any particular booking of "subscription fixed time" calls, he will have to pay at "Fixed Time" call rates (and not at "subscription fixed time" rates) for that day and subsequent days of that booking

S.R.O. 554.—In pursuance of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Central Government hereby publishes the following award of the Industrial Tribunal, Dhanbad, in the Industrial dispute between the employers in relation to the North Chirimiri Colliery and their workmen.

CENTRAL GOVERNMENT INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL AT DHANBAD

REFERENCE No. 8 of 1955

PRESENT

Shri P. S. Bindra, B.A., LL.B., Chairman

PARTIES

The employers in relation to the North Chirimiri Colliery

AND

Their workmen.

APPEARANCES

Shri D. D. Diddee, Agent, North Chirimiri Colliery—For the employers.

Shri R. L. Malviya, President, Chhatisgarh Colliery Workers Federation, and

Shri R. K. Dubey, General Secretary, Chhatisgarh Colliery Workers Federation—For the workmen.

AWARD

The Government of India, in the Ministry of Labour, by Order No. LR.2-(369)/52, dated 14th April, 1955, has referred to this Tribunal the industrial dispute between the employers in relation to the North Chirimiri Colliery and their workmen in respect of the following matter:—

"In terms of the award of the Industrial Tribunal, Dhanbad, in the dispute between the management of the North Chirimiri Colliery and their workmen, published in the Gazette of India, Part II, Section 3, dated the 17th February, 1951, vide S.R.O. 204(46), dated the 13th February, 1951, should the monetary relief to which Shri R. K. Dubey is entitled be calculated on the basis of his basic wage and allowances?"

2. The award referred to above is the award given in Reference No. 5 of 1950 by Shri S. P. Varma which was based on an agreement of the parties and the relevant portion of which runs as follows:—

"So far as the last issue, namely, the reinstatement of Shri R. K. Dubey is concerned, the parties I am glad to say, have come to an understanding. The document that has been placed before me has been signed by the representatives of both parties. The agreement runs as follows:—

"20th January, 1951

Parties agree that Shri R. K. Dubey should be re-employed within three months from the date of the publication of the award. He would be entitled to his pay from the date of his employment, if within that three months, or if beyond three months, then from the end of three months after the publication of the award."

3. The award is dated 20th January, 1951. The Government notification respecting it is dated 13th February, 1951, but it was published in the Gazette of India, dated 17th February, 1951.

4. Shri R. K. Dubey was not re-instated within three months of the date of the publication of the award, but was reinstated on 19th December, 1953. So he is entitled to his pay from 17th May, 1951 to 18th December, 1953. The dispute is about the meaning of the word 'pay'. According to the workmen the term 'pay' means 'wages' which includes all remuneration which is capable of being expressed in terms of money and Shri R. K. Dubey claimed as follows:—

	Rs.	A.	P.
1. Basic pay at Rs. 30 p.m.	935	0	0
2. Dearness allowance at Rs. 30 p.m.	935	0	0
3. Bonus	311	10	8
4. Grain allowance at Rs. 11-4-0 p.m.	350	10	0
5. House rent at Rs. 8 p.m.	249	4	0
6. Medical aid at Rs. 5 p.m.	155	0	0
7. Water at Rs. 5 p.m.	155	0	0
8. Fuel at Rs. 5 p.m.	155	0	0
9. Leave with pay for 111 days at 43 days per year ..	300	0	0
10. Employers' contribution to P.F.	50	10	0
11. Overtime allowance for Sunday working on 124 Sundays at Rs. 3-5-4	413	4	0
12. Light at Rs. 4 p.m.	124	0	0
TOTAL	4,134	6	8

According to the management 'pay' only means 'basic pay' and so he is said to be entitled to Rs. 931. Shri Dubey has wrongly calculated the basic pay with effect from 13th May instead of 17th May, 1951 as the award was published on 17th February and not on 13th February, 1951.

5. The management has also raised a preliminary objection that the present reference is not maintainable in law because there is no industrial dispute. It is contended that there is no industrial dispute because by letter No. LR.2(369)/52, dated 14th February, 1953, marked annexure 'A' (attached to the written statement of the employers) the Government has decided the amount payable which the management is prepared to pay. A perusal of the said letter will reveal that it is a letter from one Shri A. Narayanan, Under Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Labour, addressed to the Managing Agents stating that Shri Dubey is entitled to Rs. 931 only under the said award and that it may be paid to him. The management subsequently offered this amount to the workman who refused to accept the payment. This letter was written by the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Labour, in his administrative capacity and the matter was never referred to him by the parties for decision, nor the Under Secretary had any jurisdiction to decide the matter. It is only a personal opinion of a Government official which does not bind the workman in any way whatsoever. The dispute is between the workman and his employers and not between the employer and the Government. As the workman did not agree to the opinion expressed by the Under Secretary therefore the matter was taken up by the Government and the dispute has been referred to me in exercise of the powers conferred on the Government by clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. It is therefore wrong to state that there is no industrial dispute or that this Tribunal has got no jurisdiction to decide the matter.

6. So far as the interpretation of the word 'pay' is concerned, the term 'average pay' has been defined in clause (aa) of section 2 which runs as follows:—

"'average pay' means the average of the wages payable to a workman—

- (i) in the case of monthly paid workman, in the three complete calendar months,
- (ii) in the case of weekly paid workman, in the four complete weeks,
- (iii) in the case of daily paid workman, in the twelve full working days, preceding the date on which the average pay becomes payable if the workman had worked for three complete calendar months or four complete weeks or twelve full working days, as the case may, and where such calculation cannot be made, the average pay shall be calculated as the average of the wages payable to a workman during the period he actually worked;)"

The meaning of the word 'pay' as usual in the award cannot be different from the word 'pay' used in the term 'average pay' which has been defined as above. According to the above, average pay means, average wages payable to a workman and therefore 'pay' means 'the wages' payable to a workman. The term 'wages' has been defined in clause (rr) of the Act which runs as follows:—

"'wages' means all remuneration capable of being expressed in terms of money, which would, if the terms of employment, express or implied, were fulfilled, be payable to a workman in respect of his employment or of work done in such employment, and includes—

- (i) such allowances (including dearness allowance) as the workman is for the time being entitled to;
 - (ii) the value of any house accommodation, or of supply of light, water, medical attendance or other amenity or of any service or of any concessional supply of foodgrains or other articles;
 - (iii) any travelling concession;
- but does not include—
- (a) any bonus;
 - (b) any contribution paid or payable by the employer to any pension fund or provident fund or for the benefit of the workman under any law for the time being in force;
 - (c) any gratuity payable on the termination of his service;)"

7. The word 'pay' cannot mean 'basic pay' alone as otherwise the word 'basic' becomes redundant. Basic pay means pay of 1939 and not the present pay. Pay means 'wages' as defined by the Act and therefore the workman is entitled to his basic pay, dearness allowance, grain allowance and house rent. As regards medical aid the workman has stated that he is not given medical aid in cash but in case of illness he is allowed to purchase certain medicines in case they are prescribed and are not available in the hospital. According to the definition of wages it includes value of medical attendance if it is capable of being expressed in terms of money. It cannot be said that the workman must have fallen ill during the period of dispute and he would have required medicines worth Rs. 155 and that these medicines could not be available at the company's hospital. In the ordinary course, if a workman falls ill, he is treated in the hospital and no extra charge is incurred by the management and hence I am of opinion that the amount of Rs. 155 charged as medical aid cannot be allowed. The workman has claimed water charges at the rate of Rs. 5 per mensem. The management contended that they did not pay anything as water charges, and when the workman was questioned about it, he stated that an adjustment coolie used to provide him with water. If an adjustment coolie provided him with water, there was no legal sanction behind it. The management cannot be made to pay the water charges, so the water charges claimed by the workman are also disallowed. The workman has also claimed fuel charges at the rate of Rs. 5 per mensem but he was faced with his own letter marked Exhibit R/1, dated 18th December, 1953, where he had claimed Rs. 3 as fuel charges. The management denied to have supplied any fuel and when questioned about it the workman replied that he was allowed one basket of coal per day as fuel and that the coal was shown in the books of the company under the heading colliery consumption. It has not been proved that this alleged supply of coal was covered by any terms of employment whether express or implied. So this item is also disallowed. The next item claimed is a sum of Rs. 300 in lieu of 111 days leave which may have fallen due to him if he had worked. This is not covered by the definition of wages and so it is disallowed. The employers' contribution to Provident Fund and Bonus are specially excluded by sub-clauses (a) and (b) (iii) of clause (rr). The question of overtime does not arise at all. One is entitled to overtime when he works overtime and not otherwise. The last item is of light and the workman has stated that he was supplied with one tin of kerosene oil per month and so I allow the item of light. The amounts payable have to be re-calculated as they are payable with effect from 17th May and not from 13th May as given in the statement of Shri R. K. Dubey. Under the circumstances, the workman is entitled to the following amounts:—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Basic pay at Rs. 30 per mensem	930	0	0
Dearness allowance at Rs. 30 per mensem	930	0	0
Grain allowance at Rs. 11-4-0 per mensem	348	12	0
House rent at Rs. 8 per mensem	248	0	0
Light at Rs. 4 per mensem	124	0	0
TOTAL	2,580	12	0

8. I may also point out that it has been stated in para. 8 of the written statement of the management that Shri R. K. Dubey was paid at the rate of Rs. 25 as basic pay at the time of his dismissal in 1948, but it has been proved in this case that R. K. Dubey was drawing Rs. 30 as his basic pay from May, 1946 to October, 1947. In November, 1947 when the Korea Award came into force his basic pay was reduced from Rs. 30 to Rs. 25 and this reduction was done respecting all the members of the staff, but the cut imposed was restored in February or March, 1949, respecting all the members of the staff. Had the workman been re-employed on 17th May, 1951 according to the award, he would have got his basic pay at the rate of Rs. 30 per mensem and not at the rate of Rs. 25 per mensem. So his basic pay has to be calculated at the rate of Rs. 30 per mensem.

9. The workman is not entitled to any interest but I allow Rs. 50 as costs and pass my award according to the above findings.

New Delhi, the 23rd February 1956

S.R.O. 555.—In pursuance of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Central Government hereby published the following award of the Central Government Industrial Tribunal, Dhanbad in the matter of an application under section 33A of the said Act, from Shri Chakradhar Mudali, a workman of Messrs. Indian Copper Corporation Ltd.

CENTRAL GOVERNMENT INDUSTRIAL, TRIBUNAL AT DHANBAD.

APPLICATION No. 465 OF 1955

In the matter of an application U/s. 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act 1947.

PRESENT

Shri P. S. Bindra, B.A.L.L.B., Chairman.

PARTIES

Chakradhar Mudali, Timber Mazdur, B/N 3547, C/o Mosabeni Mines Labour Union, P.O. Mosabeni Mines, Singhbhum—Complaint.

Vs.

The General Manager, Messrs. Indian Copper Corporation Ltd., P.O. Ghatsila, Singhbhum—Opposite Party.

AWARD

This is a complaint under Section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by an employee of Messrs. Indian Copper Corporation Ltd.

It is alleged by him that a warning chit has been issued on 8th November, 1955, during the pendency of Reference No. 20 of 1955 which has prejudiced his conditions of service. The employer has filed a written statement stating that the warning chit has been cancelled and the relevant entry has been deleted from the service card of the employee concerned.

Under the circumstances, there is now no contravention of Section 33 of the Act, and the present complaint under Section 33A has become infructuous. I pass my award accordingly.

The 10th February, 1956.
